In Making Sense of Men You Will Learn:

- ♥ The unsuspecting ways men are responding to you, so you can create the response you want!
- ♥ Why relationships can start out great... You're confident and expressive, he adores you, you're having a great time... And then it assumes a downward spiral, inevitably leading to a dramatic crash and burn. Why does this happen? How do you stop it? How do you turn it around?
- ♥ How to tell when a man is attracted to you in the most important ways. When does he have feelings for you? What does he do? What do you need to do to fan the fire?

Making Sense of Men* is for women only. Seating is limited.
Please reserve your space soon!
